

William H. (Bill) Holzerland

William H. (Bill) Holzerland serves as the Director, Division of Freedom of Information for the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's Center for Devices and Radiological Health. Prior to joining FDA, Holzerland worked at the newly formed Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), where he was the Senior FOIA Analyst and FOIA Public Liaison. In that role, he assisted the CFPB FOIA Manager in creating FOIA and Privacy Act (PA) policies, as well as reviewed and approved FOIA/PA cases processed by the Bureau's analysts. Before joining the CFPB, Holzerland served at the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Privacy Office as Associate Director, Disclosure Policy & FOIA Program Development, as well as the DHS FOIA Public Liaison. In this role, he assisted the DHS Chief & Deputy Chief FOIA Officers in formulating and disseminating Departmental FOIA/PA policies, among other duties. Holzerland, a Buffalo, New York native, earned a dual Bachelor of Arts in Journalism/Mass Communications and History from St. Bonaventure University. He is a 2013 J.D. candidate at the University of Baltimore School of Law.
